Say He Was Drunk.

Last Wednesday afternoon Curt Gentry, who has been a barber here for several weeks, hired a horse and buggy at Bridwell & Cornell's stable to drive to Louisville. Later in the day, it is said, he tried to sell the turn-out at a stable on Market street and was arrested by two Louisville detectives who lodged him in jail. Bridwell & Cornell say that Gentry was considerably under the influence of liquor when he called at their stable, and that they do not believe he intended to dispose of their property.

Save Your Poultry

As the season is now upon us when the Poultry Yard is swarming with broods of YOUNG CHICKENS we invite your special attention to

"BECKMANN'S POULTRY POWDER"

THE ONLY RELIABLE REMEDY FOR

Chicken Cholera

AND ALSO A PREVENTIVE AND CURE FOR ALL DISEASES INCIDENT TO POULTRY, SUCH AS DIARRHEA, ROUP, Gapes, ETC.

We can safely recommend this remedy as entirely reliable, being composed of ingredients which are purely medicinal, and not mixed with bran or cornmeal, generally found to be one half the bulk of most poultry remedies.

It is a fact well known to every farmer that the loss of Poultry annually from disease is enormous, when by proper management and the occasional use of Beckmann's Poultry Powder he will be amply repaid for his trouble by the increase in his profits. By virtue of its Tonic properties it is the best Enters Race For Legislature.

Middletown, Ky., Sept. 16—John B. Guthrie, a well-known farmer of this vicinity has entered the democratic primary for Representative from Jefferson county. One of his opponents for the nomination, Lloyd W. Gates, who is the present member of the Legislature is also from this place.

Attend Services at Jeffersonstown.

Misses Margaret and Adelaide Hoertz, two of Louisville's most popular members of the younger set, attended services at St. Edwards' church last Sunday, which, no doubt, accounted for the unusual large attendance of beaux. The Misses Hoertz have many friends in Jeffersonstown whom they visit quite frequently.

Leaves Friday For Conference.

The Rev. L. K. May preached his last sermon Sunday at the Methodist church before leaving for the annual session of the Louisville Conference at Columbia. Bro. May is popular and admired by every citizen of Jeffersonstown, regardless of religious affiliation, and all hope he will be returned to the church at this place for another year.

Attends Conference at Columbia.

Middletown, Ky., Sept. 16—The Rev. A. L. Mell, who has been the pastor of the Methodist church here for the past year, preached his last sermon yesterday prior to attending the annual conference in session this week at Columbia. Mr. Mell is quite popular with his congregation and it is hoped he will be returned to next church for the ensuing year.

Candidates Were There.

Valley Station, Ky., Sept. 16—The ice cream social and oyster supper given by the Ladies' Aid of the South Jefferson Christian church, Saturday evening, was well attended and proved to be very successful, both socially and financially. Dr. Charles Groves, a candidate for coroner, Herman Monroe, a candidate for jailer, and W. O'Connor, a candidate for county attorney, were present circulating among the voters.

Spice—Knaur.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Spice and Mr. Harry Knaur was quietly solemnized on Saturday evening, September 14, at the parsonage of the First English church in Louisville, the Rev. S. S. Walt officiating. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. Miss Spice has made her home with Mrs. John Seabolt for several years and is a highly respected young lady. Mr. Knaur is a prosperous farmer living in Jeffersonstown. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

Big Fish Caught in Floyd's Fork.

Middletown, Ky., Sept. 16—Two veteran fishermen of this place, Allen Blankenbaker and Luther Wetherby went fishing last Thursday in Floyd's Fork, and caught three fish of the carp variety, the combined weight of which was fifty pounds. The biggest one of the three weighed twenty-five pounds, and Mr. Blankenbaker broke his rod and reel in landing it. This is not a "fish story" as the Jeffersonian's correspondent vouches for the fish, the scales and the veracity of the fishermen.

Escaped Lunatic For Two Years Captured.

Harrods Creek, Ky., Sept. 14—After having been at large for two years, Joseph Daugherty, an escaped lunatic was captured by County Patrolman Lee Barbour and returned to the Lakeland Asylum. The asylum authorities were surprised when Daugherty was brought in as they believed he was dead. He is unable to tell of his whereabouts or his wanderings since he escaped two years ago. For several weeks he had been roaming about this place and Prospect, his queer actions causing women and children much alarm.

"Raffles" Visits Jeffersonstown.

George Harris Donohue, the "Mysterious Mr. Raffles of the Louisville Herald," was in town Tuesday and called at the office of The Jeffersonian. "Raffles" was very solicitous to know if our local edition, Cal Marshall and Frank Williams, were anywhere around, and seemed much relieved when told they were seen on the Shelbyville pike after a couple of crap-shootin' comas. Several of our citizens say they recognized "Raffles" and are now confident of taking the Herald's $1,000 reward for the capture of the Mysterious.

FERN CREEK

Barstons Road Receiving Needed Repair.
Spontaneous Combustion Suggested as Cause of Second Courier-Journal Fire.

The Rev. E. W. Elliott has purchased of Harry Cartright, of Louisville, his interest in his father's farm at this place.

Mrs. Della Blankenbaker, of Louisville, visited her uncle, M. F. Johnson.

The Barstons road from near Beechel to Fern Creek is being resurfaced. This work has been needed for years, but had been neglected, while little side roads were having thousands of dollars spent where the work was not nearly so necessary.

W. G. Johnson, his daughter and Mrs. L. T. Bates, have gone to Illinois to visit numerous relatives.

The "latter rains" have come and have given life and vigor to the late crops, and made ground in fine condition for breaking for late seeding.

C. C. Fegenbush is suffering from some brain trouble, but this writing is somewhat improved. Can it be possible that the resolutions passed by the Long Run Association upon the temperance question made Henry Watterson so hot that the second fire in the Courier-Journal building can be attributed to spontaneous combustion? In a recent editorial he said he dreamed he was in hell and he must have been feeling pretty warm to have had such a dream as that.

A Word About

Furniture

If all furniture was alike it wouldn't matter where you bought it. But it is not all alike. There is as much difference in the make of furniture as there is in the people who use it.

Our Furniture is Strong durable and well made. It is properly designed and the hand of the skilled mechanic is plainly manifest in the kind we sell.
